MATT RYCRAFT

Photography & art has been in my family for 3 generations. I was using my first camera at eight years old & haven't had one out of my hands since.

With a relaxed but professional style, I'll guide you through your wedding day. I blend into the background capturing those natural moments, so you'll barely notice I'm there. Once the wedding photographs are ready you'll be invited to my studio for your amazing viewing, seeing your wedding photographs for the first time, picking and customising your beautiful wedding album.

ALBUMS vs DIGITAL FILES

What would it feel like to hold a custom made wedding album in your hands, telling the story of your wedding day? What would it mean to share this story with your children and grandchildren?

Digital files disintegrate over time and individual photographs do not have the capacity to tell a story the way your custom made wedding album can. These heirloom pieces are the beginning of your legacy and allow you to bring your love story to life through print for yourselves and for generations to come.

CAPTURING THE STORY OF THE DAY

When you hire a professional photographer for your wedding you are not only hiring someone to take pretty pictures but also a person who tells a story.

I take the time to really listen to you and your love story. I will know the people and moments that are most important to capture on your wedding day and will take gentle care to create an atmosphere where your story can unfold. Always in the background, observing and guiding, I document your story in such a way that when you see your photographs you will be able to truly relive the beautiful and unique story of your wedding day.

Here at Matthew Rycraft, your a friend, welcomed into the Rycraft family with open arms. I am here to help through your wedding process, timings, suppliers, styles recomendations. I'm just a call or email away.
